Cotter Consulting is a program, project and construction management firm.

listen

What are the goals of your project?
Mission? Scope? Budget? Schedule?

Cotter helps owners effectively define the project by listening and establishing goals.

Together we will answer the big questions and form the project plan.

We coordinate your project and protect your interests to get it done right.

engage

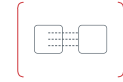

Collaboration and strong relationships are the cornerstone to the success of a project, no matter size or type.

Cotter assembles the right professionals for your project and becomes part of your team.

We foster collaboration and build relationships that drive the project towards completion.

Every team needs a leader. Cotter is that leader.

advise

Projects require continual and complex decision making.

As challenges arise, we advise you based on the expertise we have gained through years of experience and knowledge of your project.

We focus on your success.

Experience translates into smart leadership at all stages of your project.

Success is meeting all your goals and objectives.

Your success is our passion.

With a roll-up-your-sleeves attitude, we'll do what it takes to get the project done.

We deliver results and cement relationships.
